VIII Duration, Date of joining, Attendance, Leave and Responsibilities

- i) The duration of the Degree & Diploma courses including University Examination is three years and two years respectively. For the purpose of reckoning the duration of the course, any candidate will be deemed to have joined the course on the date on which the candidate actually commences the academic programme as certified by the Principal. This date should be given as the date of joining in the Post Graduate register maintained by the University. He/she will have to complete the total duration of the course before being given the course certificate.

- ii) Attendance & Leave: The candidate should have a minimum percentage of attendance as stipulated by the universities. All the 365 days of the year are working days for post graduate students. However, they will be permitted to avail casual leave for 20 days, but not more than 10 days at a stretch. Any other leave will entail extension of the course. The candidate will be eligible for "leave under exceptional circumstances", supported by medical certificates (subject to verification by medical board) recommended by the Head of Department, sanctioned by the Head of the Institution and approved by the Director of ACME. Those who take leave without prior sanction are liable to be considered to be on unauthorized absence. If the candidate is unauthorisedly absent for more than 10 days, he / she will be terminated from the course and liquidated damages will be levied. Those who are absenting themselves apart from the eligible leave will not be entitled to get stipend for the period of absence.
- iii) All PG students are eligible for weekly off for one day. This will be allowed by the Head of the Department concerned without affecting the routine functioning of the Department. Weekly off cannot be accumulated.
- iv) CMEs, workshops and other academic programmes conducted by recognised academic bodies are essential aspects of PG training programme. All PG students may be permitted to attend such programmes without affecting the routine working of the Departments concerned. The Heads of Departments shall sanction special casual leave to PG students provided they apply prior to the CME programme and the Head of Department is convinced about the genuinity of the programme and utility for the particular course. The student on returning from the programme should submit attendance certificate to the Head of the Department.
- v) No Post Graduate student shall leave the country without prior sanction of the Director. Any violation will be viewed seriously warranting termination of the course.
- vi) All the Post Graduate Students of Degree and Diploma courses will be full time residents of ACME. They will be assigned the duty of full time residents and are liable to undertake the duties assigned by individual departments or units where they are posted.
- vii) All resident Post Graduates students of Degree and Diploma courses will be eligible for monthly stipend of Rs. 10,000/-.
- viii) All P.G. students are authorised to use the facilities of the Department library, Central Library, Telemedicine lecturers and internet facilities.
- ix) Free medical aid will be applicable as for other staff and students.
